

Indiana Women In Need (I.W.I.N.) Foundation
Third Party Event Guidelines and Agreement Application

Thank you for selecting the I.W.I.N. Foundation as the recipient of your charitable fundraising event. Proceeds from third party events ranging from golf and bowling events, baseball and softball tournaments, dance-a-thons, fashion shows, art exhibits, craft and bake sales, etc. help to support the I.W.I.N. Foundation's mission to give Indiana's women the strength to endure breast cancer treatment by providing individualized services and support. Ninety cents of every dollar raised from third party events goes directly to funding these patient services with ten cents supporting the organizations operational costs.

Guidelines:

- 1) Any group, organization or individual organizing a Third Party Event with proceeds going to the I.W.I.N. Foundation must complete and submit a Third Party Event Agreement Application to the I.W.I.N. Foundation for review and approval.
- 2) All promotional and publicity materials are to indicate if a portion of or all the proceeds will be going to the I.W.I.N. Foundation. Expenses are covered by the Third Party Event organization/organizer.
- 3) The I.W.I.N. Foundation will review the agreement application to insure the Third Party Event is non-controversial and provides a favorable community image to help advance the I.W.I.N. Foundation's mission.
- 4) All promotional and publicity material to include the I.W.I.N. Foundation name and logo such as press releases, mailings, brochures and banners related to the Third Party Event must be submitted to the I.W.I.N. Foundation for approval prior to distributing or promotion of the event.
- 5) It is the responsibility of the Third Party Event organizer(s) to secure applicable raffle permits, special licenses and all insurance certificates that may be required for the event by local law. Door-to-door solicitations are not authorized by the I.W.I.N. Foundation.
- 6) The Third Party organizer(s) are responsible for all ticket/event sales or any other administrative aspects of the Third Party Event, including but not limited to accounting, financing, and the IRS nonprofit charitable deductions.
- 7) The Third Party organizer(s) agree to hold harmless the I.W.I.N. Foundation, its board of directors, officers, employees, volunteers, licensors and suppliers from all claims, punitive or consequential damage (including without limitation any loss of profits, lost savings, or loss of data) arising out of or related to the Third Party organizer(s) and the Third Party Event.
- 8) The proceeds of the Third Party Event are to be submitted to the I.W.I.N. Foundation within 30 days of the event date.
